THE SUITES

The Presidential Suite

The PRESIDENTIAL SUITE at the Capital Hilton is suited for grand entertaining, featuring a contemporary motif, with a truly classic, varied and comfortable design. A magnificent foyer of white marble at the entrance of the suite leads into an elegant and spacious neo-classical parlor. The expansive dining area seats 10 comfortably, and adjoins to a separate butler pantry with separate entrance, that can be used by banquet staff for catered social gatherings. In the immediate parlor area, a wet bar is easily accessible from the balcony for entertaining outdoors. Doors from the dining area open directly into the foyer, allowing for a continuous flow. As an added convenience, there is a separate powder room off the parlor, which leads into the guestroom corridor of the suite. The suite is situated at the corner of Sixteenth and K Streets, Northwest, with a balcony that runs the entire length of the suite. Weather permitting; you may venture outside to enjoy a view of Washington DC from the Presidential balcony. Patio furniture is supplied, or can be removed for larger parties. A king-bedded room is attached.

The Constitution Suite

The best view of downtown Washington is from the parlor of the CONSTITUTION SUITE at the Capital Hilton. The suite has Old World charm and impeccable décor. The foyer is long and graceful, leading into a large parlor which receives guests in true Washington style. To the left of the foyer is a formal dining room with a large dining table suitable for small meetings of eight and ideal for a board meeting. The dining room also features the baby grand piano played by former President Harry S. Truman during his residence here while the White House was under renovation. An adjoining kitchenette has a separate entrance door that can be used by banquet staff for catering dinner functions. The parlor is as large as the dining area and is ideal for conducting business, entertaining, or relaxing. For a congenial gathering with friends or business associates, the CONSTITUTION SUITE includes a large kitchenette with service pass-through to the dining area. The king-bedded suite adjoins a separate double/double bedroom if desired.
